Breathe

Lee Carr

Eh Eh Eh
Eh Eh Eh
U-Oh U-Oh U-Oh
U-Oh Oh OhHave you ever been in love?
Then you know just what I'm talkin about
It's like when you really know
You finally found the person you want
And you wanna spend the rest of your lifeI thought I've been there before (yeah)
But now that I'm sure (yeah)
I finally found somebody who cares (who cares)
I've given my heart and my soul to her
And I just want the whole world to knowYou're the reason that I breathe (breathe)
I want you to know that
If you were to leave, then I couldn't go back
My life will be incomplete, without you here
You're the reason that I breatheLadies if you got a man
Fellas if you got a girl
Why don't you tell 'em that they mean the whole world
To you, you, you, youYou're the reason that I breatheThe feeling you get when you call them
And they don't answer, and feels like
Your whole world's about to stop (stop)And you can't believe somehow,
Somebody makes you feel this way (this way)I'm talking about you can't eat (eat)
You can't sleep (sleep)
You can't think at all
They're like the puzzle that's been missing in your life
Why don't you look 'em in the eye and tell themYou're the reason that I breathe
I want you to know that
If you were to leave, then I couldn't go back
My life will be incomplete without you here
You're the reason that I breathe
Ladies if you got a man
Fellas if you got a girl
Why don't you tell 'em that they mean the whole world
To you, you, you, you
You're the reason that I breatheI was broken before I met you (met you)
Now I ain't trippin' like I used to (used to)
And I gotta say (gotta say)
That you made my life much better
I can barely breathe, I can barely breathe

When you're not with me (ohhh)You're the reason that I breathe
I want you to know that
If you were to leave, then I couldn't go back
My life will be incomplete, without you here
You're the reason that I breathe
I said I could barely breathe
I want you to know that if you were to leave
Then I couldnt go back
My life would be incomplete without you here
Tell em
You're the reason that I breatheIf you got a man uhh, if you got a girl
Why don't you tell 'em that they mean the whole world
To you, you, you, you (woaah)If there's somebody out there, just like me
Put your hands up and tell her
You're the reason that I breathe...
