

Miss You Well

Ike Willis

Talent lady/Life is all in disarray
Fashion plate dancer, trapped in a playhouse which isn't all a play
Mother, daddy/Left behind some time ago
Surrogate parents, they spoil you and they feed you
They'll never let go

You're gone, you had to go
Miss you well
What went wrong? Will we ever know?
We won't tell

You say you love me/just because I understand
The problems that you're facing
But I can't make the commitment
It's out of my hands
Infatuation is often a misleading thing
It's just because you're lonely
I'd stay with you/But only
Someone else pulls my string

You're gone, you had to go
Miss you well
What went wrong? Will we ever know?
We won't tell
You're gone, you had to go
Miss you well
What went wrong? Will we ever know?
We won't tell
If so, hope you're happy now
I do care

Infatuation is often a misleading thing
It's just because you're lonely
I'd stay with you/But only
Someone else pulls my string

You're gone, you had to go
Miss you well
What went wrong? Will we ever know?

We wonâ€™t tell
Youâ€™re gone, you had to go
Miss you well
What went wrong? Will we ever know?
We wonâ€™t tell
If so, hope youâ€™re happy now
I do care
I do care
Who cares?
Who cares?
Who cares?
Who cares?

Who?
