

Depth Of Field

Tripp Sprague

Well, the field is wide open
With endless new lands
And infinite landscapes
For us to create, now Yeah, I want to live in another light
Yeah, I want to live
Here the walls keep closing
As we suffocate, but a door just opened, wide Yeah, I want to live in another light
Yeah, I want to live
Ohh, we cannot let us die
We must prepare, prepare For the time to rise and then
We'll face the truth
Ohh, we cannot let us die
We must prepare, prepare For the time to rise and then
We'll face ourselves
We'll face, we'll face, we'll face ourselves
We'll face, we'll face, we'll face ourselves Ohh, yeah, I want to live in another light
Yeah, I want to live
We'll face, we'll face, we'll face ourselves
We'll face, we'll face, we'll face ourselves
