Hole in My Heart

Angus Powell

Hole in my Heart - Angus Powell.
No Paracetamol gunna help to numb this pain.
No amount of sunlight, gunna help to ease the day.
No wise words are gunna take away the grey.
Take away the grey. x2
There's a hole in my heart that's missing you. x2
Tiny place, a hundred moving pieces.
Stars alight, the souls can come to pay.
Hearts gunna melt completely.
Until they're gently swept away.
There's a hole in my heart that's missing you. And this is what it feels like x2
This is what it feels like x3
We, never saw it coming.
We didn't have a clue.
The trees stay lost 'till winter, as the winds came running through.
There's a whole in my heart that's missing you. And this is what it feels like x4

Rough approximation.
