Waiting Room

Jonny Diaz

Here in this waiting room
Yearning for You to say go
And though I'm convinced
That a 'yes' would be best
This time You're telling me 'no'

[Chorus[
It's not that I don't have any answer
It's just not the one that I'd like
But through this time Lord
I must keep in mind
You're always wiser than I

Cause You have a much better purpose
And You have a far great plan
And You have a bigger perspective
Cause You hold this world in your hands

The things that I seek are from You
Like the strong, healing touch of Your hand
But when You say 'no'
Help my trust even though
There's a reason I can't understand

Chorus

Then that miracle comes
Cause Your answer is 'yes'
I will praise You for all of my days

But when Your wisdom declares
That a 'no' is what's best
I will praise You just the same

You have a much better purpose
And You have a far greater plan
And You have a bigger perspective
Cause You hold this world in Your hands

You hold this world in Your hands
