

Soul Swimming

Beecake

...Dived too deep
And I'm trying, trying too hard
Just to breathe...Soul swimming, drowning in blue
Sirens are singing
Saying nothing is newI feel the doubt ripping strips from my heart
My imperfections
They threaten to tear me all apartSoul swimming, diving serene
Can't say I'm winning
There's monsters in the deepI feel the doubt ripping strips from my heart
My imperfections
They threaten to tear me all apartSomebody help me
Is there someone out there?
Someone console me
And show me that you careBecause I've dived too deep
And I'm trying
I'm trying hard, just to breatheSoul swimming
So dark and so warm
But I can't enjoy it, 'cause I wait
I wait here for the stormI feel the doubt ripping strips from my heart
My imperfections
They threaten to tear me all apartSomebody help me
Is there someone out there?
Someone console me
And show me that you careBecause I've dived too deep
And I'm trying
I'm trying hard, just to breatheBecause I've dived too deep
And I'm trying
I'm trying hard, just to breatheThe trick is to breathe...
