Chasing Ghosts (feat. Moto)

CHASING GHOSTS

Lyrics : Alobo Naga

Weak & fragile heart, chasing a ghost
Always around yet too far to hold
Like a shadow, vanishes away
Bleeding love, wounds undress

Tears run dry, like morning dew
Crushing dreams into, sand and dust
Stars refusing, to shine and lead
Every broken piece is longing for you

Am chasing ghosts, chasing ghosts

Am fighting here, a long lost battle
With every little beat left in my heart
The wait is over, no hope remains
No cure no remedy but, too brave to stop

Perishing, going down with a sunset
Closed my eyes, take me to the stars and back
Like a breeze, blow me kiss, and as the spirit lead
Felt your touch but found you nowhere.
