Mending

Fall Harbor

You hold me while I sleep
Fight the monsters in my dreams
Id do the same for you
If you, if you would let me throughWe struggled in the dark
While you, you tried to mend your heart
Worn, you handed it to me
And found the mending that you needYou make me better
Stronger than I thought I could be
You make me better
When youre mending meYou in bitter apathy
And me, with crimson ivory
Who thought that we could heal
The wounds others made us feelYou make me better
Stronger than I thought I could be
You make me better
When youre mending me(bridge)You hold me while I sleep
Fight the monsters in my dreams
