

Carry You

Jimmy Eat World

When I know I'm all alone
I say your name slowly
And I know that I'm alone
But I carry you
Does it feel good like the memory
When you try some history?
It's a dream to come around
The rule doesn't bend
Because the taste doesn't taste the same again
It's easy feeling righteous when removed
All you'll get is what you wanna hear
It hurts because it should
How else am I to make it clear?
I could never be the one that you want
Don't ask
Well, here's to living in the moment
'Cause it passed
Maybe a lie is what I need sometimes
You told the most and best of anyone
You said to keep me in your pocket
So I carried you
You better choose your words carefully
Because I'm not your anything
Gonna stay here in my place
And you stay in yours
Because you're only good as what you're good for
I pace around the room to spend the time
Waiting while the burning pictures fade
One thing to make your mind
And another to say it's name
I could never be the one that you want
Don't ask
Well, here's to living in the moment
'Cause it passed, it passed
I'm still carrying a little hope
That maybe things could be different now
Is that so wrong? Is that so wrong? Is that so wrong?
Would I see you tonight at a place we would go?
G-going through the motions, leads to real emotions

I wanna make things right before time runs out
It's was like you said, the taste don't taste like it should Roll down the windows, let the cold air come in, yeah
Slap my face just to feel, to feel you somehow again

Again!

I could never be the one that you want

Don't ask

Well, here's to living in the moment

'Cause it passed

I could never be the one that you want

Don't ask

Yeah, here's to living in the moment

'Cause it passed, it passed

'Cause it passed, passed, it passed
