

Front Door

Gregory Isaacs

I gave her back the key to her front door
'cause it seems she didn't care about me anymore
I gave her all the love I had and she spilled it, yeah

So I packed my things into a shopping bag and decided to quit
But Lord know that I don't wanna be lonely tonight

I don't wanna be lonely tonight
I said I don't wanna be lonely tonight

But I would rather to be lonely than to live a dirty lie
All of those things that we've been through
Used to make me happy, now make me blue
I didn't believe the things that I've heard, no
But now I've seen it with my own eyes

I know action speak louder than word
But Lord know that I don't wanna be lonely tonight
Granny know that I don't wanna be lonely tonight
I mean it, yes I mean it I don't wanna be lonely tonight
But I would rather to be lonely than to live a dirty lie
I'm so sorry we been through
I'm so fed up I don't know what to do
All of those things that we've been through
Used to make me happy, now make me blue
I didn't believe the things that I've heard, no
But now I've seen it with my own eyes

I know action speak louder than word
But Lord knows that I don't wanna be lonely tonight
Granny know that I don't wanna be lonely tonight
I mean it, yes I mean it I don't wanna be lonely tonight
But I would rather to be lonely than to live a dirty lie
Don't wanna be lonely
Don't wanna be lonely tonight, don't wanna be lonely tonight.

Songwriters
Isaacs, Gregory
Published by
Lyrics Â© Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC, Royalty Network

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlyrics.com/>