

It Hurts

Angels & Airwaves

It hurts, it hurts
It hurts, it hurts
It hurts, it hurts
It hurts, it hurts
It hurts, it hurts
It hurts, it hurts
It hurts, it hurts
It hurts, it hurts
It hurts, it hurts
It hurts, it hurts
It hurts, it hurts

Is this what you want?
'Cause everybody acts without a clue
Every little kiss and grin you gave
Was just a little bullshit I saw through
The alcohol is scented with your breath
You're always all done up to just be used
I'm waiting for excuses that deceive
I'll meet you in the back to see them through
How did I let her inside?
We're dripping of sweat, I'm feeling alright
Her lips were the last thing touched tonight
Your best friend is not your girlfriend

It hurts, it hurts
It hurts, it hurts
It hurts, it hurts
It hurts, it hurts
It hurts, it hurts
It hurts, it hurts
It hurts, it hurts
It hurts, it hurts
It hurts, it hurts
It hurts, it hurts

Are you out of your mind?
You dug yourself into a liar's hole

You made a little spark to live inside
It's now a fucking fire out of control
And when the morning comes you'll act surprised
And when the word gets out it will get old

And every day you'll try and live your life
And every little scandal will unfold
How did I let her inside?
We're dripping of sweat, I'm feeling alright
Her lips were the last thing touched tonight
Your best friend is not your girlfriend
Sherrie do you want it?
Sherrie I want it too
Sherrie do you want it?
Sherrie I want it too
How did I let her inside?
We're dripping of sweat, I'm feeling alright
Her lips were the last thing touched tonight
Your best friend is not your girlfriend
It hurts, it hurts
It hurts, it hurts
It hurts, it hurts
It hurts, it hurts
It hurts, it hurts
It hurts, it hurts
It hurts, it hurts
It hurts, it hurts
It hurts, it hurts
Your best friend is not your girlfriend
Your best friend is not your girlfriend
(It hurts)
Your best friend is not your girlfriend
(It hurts)
Your best friend is not your girlfriend
(It hurts)
