

Cold Morning Light

Todd Rundgren

I believe if I was all alone
I would be better off in a world my own
I'd forget I ever knew of you
And this dream every night that you put me through We walk along a Hollywood sea
And you dance once again with me We are close, we are friends
And our love never ends
But in the cold morning light I see
That you won't be back for me The wound you left is healing and then
It starts itching and I scratch it open again
So the pain comes out and I give in
And indulge my imaginations, whims We sit and drink Victorian tea
And your face wears a smile for me I was yours, you were mine
Our hearts bound, lost in time
But in the cold morning light I see
That you won't be back for me There can be no peace
For me there can be no rest
I believe, though I've tried my best
I'm condemned, it seems to a life of Restlessness and hopeless dreams We are close, we are friends
And our love never ends
But in the cold morning light I see
That you won't be back for me
