Never Got Enough

Charlie Wilson

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Never got enough, never, ever got enough of your lovin'
(You remember me, baby?)
Never got enough
(Yeah, it's cool, baby)Never got enough, never, ever got enough of your lovin'
Never got enoughI saw you yesterday, you said hello
Smiled, then went your way, oh, baby
I had a crazy rush come over me
I guess my feelings never changed, no, babyAnd now I'm thinking back, so many memories
Those were the days when love was so good to me
Wish I could change it now and build my time machine
I wanna take you back to how it used to beI never got enough of that lovin'
Oh, those touches felt so good
I never got enough of your kissin'
Ooh, those lips just taste so good
Oh, I ain't neverNever got enough, never, ever got enough of your lovin'
Never got enough
Never got enough, never, ever got enough of your lovin'
Never got enoughListen, babe, been wonderin' if you've felt the same
Should I just go knock on your door, oh, baby, baby, baby?
But if you got a man, I wouldn't be the type to Break a happy home, I'd just leave it aloneSee I'm still thinkin' back, so many memories
Those were the days when love was so good to me
Wish I could change it now and build my time machine
I wanna take you back to how it used to beI never got enough of that lovin'
Oh, those touches felt so good
I never got enough of your kissin'
Ooh, those lips just taste so good
Oh, I ain't neverNever got enough, never, ever got enough of your lovin'
Never got enough
Never got enough, never, ever got enough of your lovin'
Never got enoughAnd there's no doubt about it
That our past is affecting me

And I don't wanna fight it
Said I never got enough of your
I wish I had a little bit more of your love, oh, baby, love
Ooh, girl, never got enoughNever got enough, never, ever got enough of your lovin'
Never got enough
Never got enough, never, ever got enough of your lovin'
Never got enoughNever got enough, never, ever got enough of your lovin'
Never got enough
Never got enough, never, ever got enough of your lovin'
Never got enoughNever, never, never, never, never Got enough
