Speak Up

June

Get over yourself, you'll find me under your ski
This is you being selfish
This is you feeling sorry for yourself
And if not, youre kidding yourselfIt started off from the get go
Ill kill to remember and youll drink to forget
But its just your tongue youll choke on
If you speak any fasterIts just as easy to rip a piece off
Ill write all your lies off
And I dont really care
What you wear on your sleeveDid you really think that you had Hidden the pillow that covered the weapon?
The knife that cut? Im still in hiding
And youre still kidding yourselfSpeak up, speak up
Am I your easy way out?
You must be kidding yourself
You must be kiddingJust as easy as to rip out
This sliver from under your skin
Its just your tongue youll choke on
You will always drink to forget
