

A Summer in Chayolei

Camp Chayolei Hamelech

I've emptied all my shelves
I'm left here by myself
For the last time leaving my bunkhouse
I turn my head aside to see what's left behind
An empty room with nothing left inside

Now passing by the shul, a place that was once full
It's empty now, there's no one left inside
Then I hear a shout, the buses are pulling out
I can't believe camp has flown right by

(Chorus)

My eyes swell up, the tears begin to flow
A summer in Chayolei has now come to a close
I feel so attached, how can I let go?
I wish camp would be all year long
(End chorus)

Now thinking the summer through, proud of how I grew
Rebbe, it's all thanks to you
I'll continue in your path, achieving every task
Bringing Moshiach at last
