

City of Devils

Yellowcard

Man, once sang to me
Look at you saving the world on your own
And I wonder how things gonna be
As the time here, it passes so slow
In a city of Devils we live
A city of Devils we live
Find somebody to learn
Boy, you gotta love someone more than yourself
And I can feel the fire of the city lights burn
And it's hard to find Angels in Hell
Flying alone
And I feel like I don't belong
And I can't tell right from the wrong
And why have I been here so long?
In a city of Devils we live
A city of Devils we live
Questions I can't seem to find
To the answers I already have
And you can't see the sky here at night
So I guess, I can't make my way back
Flying alone
And I feel like I don't belong
And I can't tell right from the wrong
And why have I been here so long?
What if I wanted you here right now?
Would you fall in the fire, burn me down?
If I wanted you here right now
Would you fall in the fire, burn me down?
If I wanted you here right now?
In a city of Devils we live
In a city of Devils we live
A city of Devils we live, in a city of
Flying alone
And I feel like I don't belong
And I can't tell right from the wrong
And why have I been here so long?
I don't belong, don't belong
I've been here too long, too long
