Violence

Naked Aggression

It happened before and it will happen again You got beat because you didn't look like them Five men jump from the back of a van And pound you to the ground with the bats in their hands VIOLENCE! KILL! KILL! KILL! KILL! KILL! KILL! KILL! KILL! Anger causes violence and stupidity But I can't stop myself from getting angry I sometimes wish I had a gun so I could go kill everyone I'm sick of being pushed around and living in a world of fear and hate KILL! KILL! KILL! KILL! KILL! KILL! KILL! KILL! Every three minutes a woman will get raped Every hour someone will get murdered Every secind somebody gets assaulted by somebody else This is human intercation, guns and rape and war and VIOLENCE! The fighting never seems to end The fighting never seems to end Will the fighting ever end? Will the fighting ever end? KILL! KILL! KILL! KILL! KILL! KILL! KILL! KILL! People are divided into different groups And then they're lead to war against another Time & time & time again this cycle never seems to end Two opposing sides collide & violence is the way to decide who's right KILL! KILL! KILL! KILL! KILL! KILL! KILL! KILL! Ignorance and prejudice in everyone How did humans evolve into shit? No one's willing to sit down and solve problems peacefully Instead they solve their problems with their fists and guns and wars and violence The fighting never seems to end The fighting never seems to end Will the fighting ever end? Will the fighting ever end? Violence, violence, violence, VIOLENCE!
