

Maddest Kind Of Love

Big Bad Voodoo Daddy

The maddest kind of love
Is a love you know is wrong
It burns a hole right through your soul
And cuts you like a knife
The maddest kind of love
Is a love you know won't last
It fills your heart with passion
Makes you lie about your past
You know I speak from experience
I live it each day
It's something she does, it's something she'll say
It's the maddest kind of love
The maddest kind of love
Is a love just for the thrill
It doesn't have a conscience
Only lives for the kill
The maddest kind of love
Is a love you know's a lie
It leaves you feeling empty
Too weak too cold to cry
You know I speak from experience
I live it each day
It's something she does, it's something she'll say
It's the maddest kind of love
