

I've Got You

Boyzone

I don't need any money and I guess you think that's funny
I got all I need right here with you, I don't need no fancy car
No turbo charge, no super charge
None of that means anything to me'Cos, I've got you
(Every second every minute)
I've got you
(Every second every minute)
I've got you
(Every second every minute)Baby, I've got you
(Every second every minute)
I've got you
(Every second every minute)
I've got you, you and meI don't need a mansion with a room for each occasion
'Cos I got all I want right here with you
I ain't got no time for fashion, no Georgio, no Calvin
None of those mean anything to me'Cos, I've got you
(Every second every minute, I've got you)
I've got you
(Every second every minute, I've got you)
I've got you
(Every second every minute, I've got you)
Every second every minute, I've got youBaby, I've got you
(Every second every minute, I've got you)
I've got you
(Every second every minute, I've got you)
I've got you
(Every second every minute, I've got you)
You and me, oohYou're the only one for me
'Cos you got everything I need
Nothing else means anything to me'Cos, I've got you
(Every second every minute, I've got you)
I've got you
(Every second every minute, I've got you)
I've got you
(Every second every minute, I've got you)
Every second every minute I've got youBaby, I've got you
(Every second every minute, I've got you)
I've got you
(Every second every minute, I've got you)

I've got you
(Every second every minute, I've got you)
You and me, oohBaby, I've got you
(Every second every minute, I've got you)
I've got you
(Every second every minute, I've got you)
I've got you
(Every second every minute, I've got you)
You and me, oohBaby, I've got you
(Every second every minute, I've got you)
I've got you
(Every second every minute, I've got you)
I've got you
(Every second every minute, I've got you)
You and me, ooh
