Crazy

Daughtry

"Crazy" by Daughtry
There's no hiding room
When every wound brings the darkest place to light
So why not assume that straight out the womb
I've been marked by a beast of some kind
And there are so many reasons why
You're not crazy for leaving
Just crazy for staying so long
I'm amazed you're still breathing
Amazed you can feel at all
For all the pain I've caused you
I'm the one crazy after all
The one crazy after all, yeah
There's no need for signs
When your crying eyes said a million words tonight
And I'd rather die than see you do time
For the wrongs that you can't make right

You're not crazy for leaving
Just crazy for staying so long
I'm amazed that you're still breathing
Amazed you can feel at all
For all the pain I've caused you
I'm the one crazy after all
I'm so far gone
Found my way back to broken somehow
Yeah, well you moved on
But I can't find my way out
You're not crazy for leaving
Just crazy for staying so long
I'm amazed you're still breathing
Amazed you can feel at all
For all the pain I've caused you
I'm the one crazy after all (x4)
The one crazy after all, yeah
You're not crazy, yeah
