

Material Christ

Poison the Well

Your so called meager life
Plagued with riches
Born by the strong beliefs
Of your so many victimsThe task that they entrusted
Within your powers
And yet they remain unchanged
Your God is non existentYou speak of your God
Does He condemn your life?
You're nothing but a hypocrite
Actions speak over wordsThe many sins you've lived
The many lies you've told
Your defaming existence
Hidden by a power tieWhere's your God?
Who do you answer to?
How do you live with yourself?Where's your conscience?
Where's your conscience?
Do you think?This is just such an excess of assets
While they hope to eat
Your golden spoon
Is their hand to mouthAfter your final days
Where will you go?
Your sins direct you
Not your wordsYour God is nothing
Your God is non existent
Your God is nothing
Your God is non existent
He`s nothing, nothingYour God, your God, your God
Your God, your God, your God
Your God, your God, your God
Your God, your God, your GodYour God is nothing
