

It Won't Let Go

Gloriana

Sittin' on the floor on my bedroom cryin'
Tears like rain on roof top
Scars on my heart from the war I've been fightin'
And I pray like hell but the pain won't stop And you know that the boy you love keeps lettin' you down
And the boy you love is killin' you right now
And the boy you love keeps runnin' around
You got two eyes but you see you
And it ain't blind but you don't leave I tried to walk away, I tried to leave him before
Threw it all in an old suitcase got as far as a front door
No it ain't no perfect love
It's all that I've ever known
My heart still holdin' on tight
So tight that it won't let go
It won't let go
My heart still holdin' on tight
And it won't let go Small town girl, small town options
Like a rhythm from a kept song from the radio
Your heart's kept the beat and the beat hadn't stopped
But this ain't jackin' on aim
Gotta lettin' go
Ain't jackin' on aim
Gotta lettin' go I tried to walk away, I tried to leave him before
Threw it all in an old suitcase got as far as a front door
No it ain't no perfect love
It's all that I've ever known
My heart still holdin' on tight
So tight that it won't let go
It won't let go
My heart still holdin' on tight
And it won't let go And you know that the boy you love keeps lettin' you down
And the boy you love it's killin' you right now
And the boy you love keeps runnin' the round
I tried away, I try o leave him before
Got as far as the front door I tried to walk away, I tried to leave him before
Threw it all in an old suitcase got as far as a front door
No it ain't no perfect love
It's all that I've ever known
My heart still holdin' on tight
So tight that it won't let go

It won't let go
My heart still holdin' on tight
And it won't let go
