BE HERE LONG

NEEDTOBREATHE

Close my eyes and think of you
Go to sleep and dream of you
We don't get to be here long
I gave you the best of me
Loved you more than anything
We don't get to be here longWe don't get to be here long
Though my heart may be in pieces,
My eyes are still set on you
And though I can't keep it together,
I know that you want me to
I'm swimming in the grief and there's no anchor that could hold me down
I don't want any relief cause I don't want to let you go right nowYour moments were a charity they gave me more than I could lose
Yeah I know you found the promised land but im still here and im missing youWhen the day comes and the fire is out
I want to know that I gave you all, I gave you all I had
When the day comes and the fire is out
I want to know that I gave you my everything
