Infidel

Vital Remains

Victory by vehemence... the conquerd shall feel our steel
Implode the structures of religion
All faith in god collapses
Your shrine of gold has rusted awayWorthless to the masses... come and worship
The fading image through his merciless eyes
Watching as you waste away.... inside your concrete tomb
Heaven denied as the flesh will now decayLoyalty has turned to betrayal
Angels raped of duty
God is banished
For he is no longer in youThe infidel within me
Forever unbelieving
Purgate the stain of thy blessings
Obscure the light of edenBedarken the sight of paradise
Mourn the thought of hope departing
To walk the path of the righteous slave
Forever dragging the chains of tormentThe infidel within me
Forever unbelieving
Purgate the stain of thy blessings
Obscure the light of edenBedarken the sight of paradise
Mourn the thought of hope departing
To walk the path of the righteous slave
Forever dragging the chains of tormentLoyalty has turned to betrayal
Angels raped of duty
God is banished
For he is no longer in youBlackened are the halls of white
Heaven smoldering
Forever godless in this world of pain
Thorned majesty dethroned...The inferior sycophantMolded since birth from the words of a book
You followed what he commanded
Your eyes will be forever blind
To the sight of your own salvationLoyalty has turned to betrayal
Angels raped of duty
God is banished
For he is no longer in youThe infidel within me
Forever unbelieving
Purgate the stain of thy blessings
Obscure the light of edenBedarken the sight of paradise
Mourn the thought of hope departing
To walk the path of the righteous slave

Forever dragging the chains of tormentThe infidel within me
Forever unbelieving
Purgate the stain of thy blessings
Obscure the light of edenBedarken the sight of paradise
Mourn the thought of hope departing
To walk the path of the righteous slave
Forever dragging the chains of torment
