

Love To Blame

Apoptygma Berzerk

We've gone a long way while learning still our hearts kept on burning we've gone right, we've gone straight and ended up far - outwe've reaped the fruits of deception opened the doors of perception and burned down all the bridges
we came acrossChours:
when will you be whole again ?
we've both been down that road
going nowhere
still you ask is love to blame ?when will you be whole again ?
we've both been down that road
going nowhere
still you ask is love to blame ?We've gone a long way while learning still our hearts kept on burning
and ended up far - outwe've reaped the fruits of deception
and burned down all the bridges
we came acrossChours:
when will you be whole again ?
we've both been down that road
going nowhere
still you ask is love to blame ?when will you be whole again ?
we've both been down that road
going nowhere
still you ask is love to blame ?( Solo )Chours:
when will you be whole again ?
we've both been down that road
going nowhere
still you ask is love to blame ?when will you be whole again ?
we've both been down that road
going nowhere
still you ask is love to blame ?
