Common Ground

NYVES

I thought we'd made it over
I thought you might have learned
And just like I remember
The simple one returns
Are we descending
Falling into pieces
Still my broken heart

Just bring your feet to the edge
And turn around
It's the end of the road
For common ground
Bring your feet to the edge
And turn around
Say goodbye to the age,
The age of common ground

Somehow you found a pathway
To parts you don't belong
I thought you could be trusted
I've never been so wrong

Just bring your feet to the edge
And turn around
It's the end of the road
For common ground
Bring your feet to the edge
And turn around
Say goodbye to the age,
The age of common ground

Walk right up to me
Spare me all your dreams

Just bring your feet to the edge
And turn around
It's the end of the road
For common ground
Bring your feet to the edge

And turn around
Say goodbye to the age,
The age of common ground
