

Live It Up (ft. Miri Ben-Ari)

John Legend

You know we've been struggling for such a long time Working here and there just to get by
It's finally time for me to get mine No more robbing Peter so we can pay Paul (oh no)
Or going to Mama's house to make a phone call (no no)
No we don't have to struggle at all 'Cause now every day is feeling like Friday (Friday)
I'm getting paid and doing it my way (my way)
We're finally on our way
Baby now it's time to celebrate Oh live it up
We can go crazy
Live it up
You and me baby
Live it up, live it up, live it up
We're flying high
Don't want to come down
We'll let 'em know
All over town and
Live it up, live it up, live it up No more putting it in the layaway
'Cause Boo I got the money today
Come on and go to the mall and let's play
Let's go raise a toast to the days ahead
You can't take it with you when you're dead
You might as well enjoy it now instead Oh now, it's about to be a long evening (yeah yeah)
We'll party through the rest of the weekend (come on)
We're finally on our way
Baby now it's time to celebrate Oh live it up
We can go crazy
Live it up
You and me baby
Live it up, live it up, live it up
(Oh we're flying high) We're flying high
Don't want to come down
We'll let 'em know
All over town and
Live it up, live it up, live it up (We can fly so high
In the moonlit sky
'Cause there's no more cloudy days
It's so beautiful
When you feel the flow
We can dance the night away) Do you remember when times were hard?

Oh so hard
Through it all
We've come so far (ha-ha ha-ha ooh)
So we gotta live it up
So we can just celebrate there's no more pain
Raise your glass and feel no shame (ha-ha ha-ha ooh)
Oh so we gotta live it up Oh live it up
We can go crazy
Live it up
You and me baby
Live it up, live it up, live it up
(Oh we're flying high) we're flying high
Don't want to come down (yeah yeah)
We'll let 'em know
All over town and
Live it up, live it up, live it up Oh, it's time to celebrate baby (ha-ha ha-ha ooh)
So, we don't have to worry no more
We don't have to struggle no more baby So does it feel good to you?
I know it feels good to you
we don't have worry no more
We don't have to struggle no more (ha-ha ha-ha ooh)
It's time to celebrate baby (ha-ha ha-ha ooh)
Yeah we gotta live it up
