Moments

Kem

I was coming to the end of a long, long walk When a man crawled out of a cardboard box Under the E. Street Bridge, followed me on to it I went out halfway across With that homeless shadow tagging along So I dug for some change, wouldn't need it anyway He took it lookin' just a bit ashamed He said, ?You know, I haven't always been this way? I've had my moments, days in the sun Moments, I was second to none Moments when I knew I did what I thought I couldn't do Like that plane ride, coming home from the war That summer my son was born And memories like a coat so warm, a cold wind can't get through Lookin' at me now you might not know it but I've had my moments Well, I stood there tryin' to find my nerve Wondering if a single soul on Earth Would care at all, miss me when I'm gone That old man just kept hanging around Lookin' at me, lookin' down I think he recognized that look in my eyes

Standing with him there I felt ashamed I said, ?You know, I haven't always been this way? I've had my moments, days in the sun Moments, I was second to none Moments when I knew I did what I thought I couldn't do Like the day I walked away from the wine For a woman who became my wife And a love that, when it was right could always see me through Lookin' at me now you might not know it but I've had my moments I know somewhere 'round a trashcan fire tonight That old man tells his story one more time, he says ?I've had my moments, days in the sun Moments I was second to none Moments when I knew I did what I thought I couldn't do? ?Like that cool night on the E. Street Bridge When a young man almost ended it I was right there, wasn't scared a bit and I helped to pull him through? ?Lookin' at me now you might not know it Oh, lookin' at me now you might not know it but I've had my moments I've had my moments, I've had my moments?
