

Come Back Home

Strange Talk

I take a look around
I see an empty chair
No sign of you, I've given all I have
Look up to the stars
I feel you looking back
There's nothing left
Just a silhouette
I miss you Come back home
'Cause I've been waiting
Waiting for you
Come back home
'Cause I've been waiting
Waiting so long I'm at a turning point
Down an endless road
Losing touch
There's no going back
Nothing else to say
I watch you slip away
I'm counting down all the days until I see you Come back home
'Cause I've been waiting
Waiting for you
Come back home
'Cause I've been waiting
Waiting so long Come back home
'Cause I've been waiting
Waiting for you
Come back home
'Cause I've been waiting
Waiting so long I really need you here together
I hope to see you
Stay forever Come back home
'Cause I've been waiting
Waiting for you
Come back home
'Cause I've been waiting
Waiting so long Come back home
'Cause I've been waiting
Waiting for you
Come back home

'Cause I've been waiting
Waiting so long
