

From Wisdom to Hate

Gorguts

[music: Mongrain, Cloutier / lyrics: Lemay]Charriot traces carved in sand

Once more, pain, will expand my land

Each arrow thrown

Strengthen my throneBounds to my realm, the sword shall set

My blade was the one that you've last met

With red-stained hands,

The victor standsFrom wisdom to hate

From wisdom to hateIntrude my peace...war, I'll proclaim

Your empty skull will be my gain

I will, with greed

Watch yourself bleedWith envious eyes, on me you've sined

Each place I pass are left to ruins

On your decline

My reign will shineFrom wisdom to hate

From wisdom to hateI am the one which none defies

Warfare and I are unifiedWisdom collapse

Hatred soon will riseCharriot traces carved in sand

Once more, pain, will expand my land

Each arrow thrown

Strengthen my throneBounds to my realm, the sword shall set

My blade was the one that you've last met

With red-stained hands,

The victor standsI am the one which none defies

Warfare and I are unified
