

Cry Alone

Jimi Jamison

I feel your spirit touch me
(some sentence I could not understand)

I hear the silence whisper
What only love can say
And I can't get over you

I think of promises broken
I think of you with him
I still need you with me, girl
Ohhh, but I can't give in
And I can't get over you

Oh, ohhhhhh

So I must cry alone
Until my heart is strong
(but I believe in us)
I cannot follow you
With broken wings
No !
I must cry alone

I see a light in the distance
I see you in me
Wanna trust you so much
Oh, if I could only believe
Cause I can't get over you
Oh, ohhhhhh

But I must cry alone
Until my heart is strong
(but I believe in us)
I cannot follow you
With broken wings
No !
I must cry alone

Until my heart is done !
I cannot follow you
With broken wings

No !

I must cry alone

I think of you and him

But I can't give in

I must cry alone
