Silence

Shannon Hurley

In my empty room
You can feel me shaking
What else can I do
My heart is breaking
Everything we say
Just turns into silence.

I walk out in the sun
And the morning hits me
I take a look around
And breathe the air in
This is what I want
To be free of you silence.

Every time I think about
What we could have done
What we could have been
If we were willing to wait
We were in such a rush
Now weâ€™re out of sync and
Weâ€™re out of touch
Now itâ€™s too late
To alter our mistakes
Of silence.

Covering the ground
The leaves of Autumn
Muffle up the sound
Of our footsteps
I never heard goodbye
We just left in Silence.

Every time I think about
What we could have done
What we could have been
If we were willing to wait
We were in such a rush
Now weâ€™re out of sync and
Weâ€™re out of touch
Now itâ€™s too late

To alter our mistakes
Of silence.
We both go our own ways
In silence.
