

Though It Aches

Daniel Norgren

There's a clown on your back
Where you go
There's a clown on your back
Where you go
And his grin may be wide
But he's all dead inside
There's a clown on your back
Where you go And you're humming along
With a tune
And you're humming along
With a tune
Though it aches from your toes
To your head as it goes
Oh you're humming along
With a tune
Though it aches from your toes
To your head as it goes
Oh you're humming along
With a tune Going down to the bottom
Of the sea
Going down to the bottom
Of the sea
If you don't know how to swim
You go down with the stream
Oh down to the bottom
Of the sea
If you don't know how to swim
You go down with the stream
Down to the bottom
Of the sea
If you don't know how to swim
You go down with the stream
Down to the bottom
Of the sea
