So Tired

Uriah Heep

Well, I've been on the road for a year or more
And I done a lot of things I never did before
Now I want everyone to listen to my song
And you can tell me when you've heard it if you think I'm wrong
'Cause I'm so tired of everybody staring at me
Yes, I'm so tired, and I'm so uninspired
Please help me
Well, I seen 'em rise and I seen 'em fall
And I use to think that I was having a ball
But I was kidding myself for a long, long time
But now I got myself a spoon, I'm feeling fine
But I'm so tired, everybody's staring at me
Yes, I'm so tired, and I'm so uninspired

Won't you please help me?
Where can you go, where can you go?
When there is no one to show a guiding light
What did you say, what did you say?
Have you been thinking about me day and night?
'Cause I'm so tired of everybody staring at me
And I'm so, so tired and I'm so uninspired, yeah
Please help me
Won't you please help me? Yeah
Won't you please help me, me, me, me, me me?
Me, me, me, me, me
