Don't Go

Rae Morris

I keep on hoping that we'll find
Another reason to compromise
But this time we'll break
Down inside.I keep on staring to the past
And all those feelings we compromised
And this time I'll break
Down insideDon't go
Don't feel like you have to
Only if you want to
Fill my world with hope again
Hope againSometimes people make the wrong moves
Walking in the wrong shoes
Make me feel like hope again
Hope againWe keep on changing mile by mile
And all the answers are hard to find
And this time we'll go hand from hand
I'll shed some sorrow
Shed some sin
I hate this state we're in
And this time I'll break down insideDon't go
Don't feel like you have to
Only if you want to
Fill my world with hope again
Hope againSometimes people make the wrong moves
Walking in the wrong shoes
Make me feel like hope again
Hope againSunshine slowly, falls from your mind
Falls from your mind
Hope dies slowly and falls from your eyes
Falls from your eyes
Hope dies slowly and falls from your eyes
Falls from your eyesDon't go
Don't feel like you have to
Only if you want to
Fill my world with hope again
Hope againSometimes people make the wrong moves
Walking in the wrong shoes
Make me feel like hope again
Hope again.
