Both Sides Are Even

The Boxer Rebellion

You don't need a reason For I know that what I've done is wrong No one there to warn you About the way that our moment's gone Yeah, it's the same Right or wrong Yeah, it's the same thing Right or wrongThese are my suspensions And I'll never know how this was a lost cause And both sides are even They are even and alone Yeah, it's the same Right or wrong Yeah, it's the same thing Right or wrongAh...And both sides are even They are even and alone Yeah, and both sides are even They are even and alone Yeah, it's the same Right or wrong Yeah, it's the same thing Right or wrong Yeah, it's the same thing Right or wrong
