

Flashback

Icona Pop

Here I go again acting like I'm the king of the world.

Oh whoa

Don't give a damn about the voice in my head; do you ever learn?

Yeah, I let myself get starry-eyed.I drink all night

When I'm uptight.

Another round

To make it right.Waking up again with a heart full of hate

Memory lost in alcohol

Where did my head go, go?

You took a lot of love from this heart full of hate

Babe and I gave you quite a show

Drinks on me, unstoppableI'm in a flashback, I'm in a flashback, I'm in a flashback

I'm in a flashback, I'm in a flashback, I'm in a flashback

(In a flashback)Last night, I had another bad dream that wasn't meant to reoccur

And now I know, too much of one thing will only make you feel worse

But my alter ego take the leadI drink all night

When I'm uptight.

Another round

To make it right.Waking up again with a heart full of hate

Memory lost in alcohol

Where did my head go, go?

You took a lot of love from this heart full of hate

Babe and I gave you quite a show

Drinks on me, unstoppableI'm in a flashback, I'm in a flashback, I'm in a flashback

I'm in a flashback, I'm in a flashback, I'm in a flashback

(In a flashback)Wrapped in twilight, great mistakes

[?] high and low,

Glorious and pitiful,

Nights are young and so are we

That is just how we rollI'm in a flashback, I'm in a flashback, I'm in a flashback

I'm in a flashback, I'm in a flashback, I'm in a flashback

(In a flashback)Waking up again with a heart full of hate

Memory lost in alcohol

Where did my head go, go?

You took a lot of love from this heart full of hate

Babe and I gave you quite a show

Drinks on me, unstoppableI'm in a flashback
