

Don't You Love Me

The Pretty Reckless

Child goes to the store for a loaf of bread
(Don't you love me? Don't you love me, no more?)
Bullets flying all around his head
(Don't you love me? Don't you love me, no more?) Said, he's hurting, gone and lost his job
(Don't you love me? Don't you love me, no more?)
To feed his family got to steal and rob
(Don't you love me? Don't you love me, no more?) All he wants to know is, do you love me?
(Do you love me? Don't you love me, no more?)
All he needs to know is, do you love me?
(Do you love me? Don't you love me, no more?) Why does granny have to walk the streets?
(Don't you love me? Don't you love me, no more?)
Trying to find a sheltered place to sleep
(Don't you love me? Don't you love me, no more?) See the cops arrest another child
(Don't you love me? Don't you love me, no more?)
Mother, mother crying, I don't know where he is (Don't you love me? Don't you love me, no more?) It's a shame, is that all you have to say
It's all the same, if we just turn and walk away
When somebody needs you, their arms trying to reach you
I'm begging, please, have a heart Don't you love me? Don't you love me, no more?
Don't you love me? Don't you love me? All he wants to know is, do you love me?
Do you love me? Don't you love me, no more?
All he wants to know is, do you love me?
Do you love me? Don't you love me, no more? All she wants to know is, do you love me?
Do you love me? Don't you love me, no more?
All she wants to know is, do you love me?
Do you love me? Don't you love me, no more?
