If I Fall

Kavana

If I had everthing,
I wouldn't be satisfied,
Cos there'd still be emptiness in my life.
So tell me baby is it true.
That I was surely make for you.
We both know it,
So why do we pretend,
I spent all of my life just looking for this ,
I need no more,(cos I found you),
And now that you're here I just can't ignore it.
So, I hope you don't mind if I fall,
For you baby.
So, welcome into my world,
The sun is shinning through.
It's time like this I realise what I've found in you,
In you.
Do you know it's pain to see that I think you're the one for me.
I fyou like it,
Why don't you give in.
I really believe we can make it.
It's a only matter of time (and time is moving on).
So now I can't wait any longer,
Cos it's with me you belong
