

Stronger (Credit Remix)

Holly Drummond

no one can save us now the gates are open and the truth is flooding out time after time you said i made you feel something new lie after lie you told you made me believe in you all this time we've been searching searching for someone someone to make us stronger scared of being alone we fake our love but without you i am stronger i don't want to save us now i'm letting go of the weight that pulls me down time after time i said you made me feel something new lie after lie i told i made you believe in me too
