

G.R.E.Y.G.O.D.S. (feat. $uicideBoy$)

Ramirez

Sitting in a circle as we're praying to the wicked one
Flames arise, a buster cries and everybody starts to run
 Looking at the devil in his eyes, don't be surprised
 Everybody in this bitch will die by the night
 Lightning strikes in front of my feet
I believe I'm the demon that bleeds in the color of grey
 Winter is coming I summon the flames
 Summer is gone I'm no longer Yung Plague
 Noose and a blade
 Lucifer's slave
 Choosing the day I'll be loose in the grave
 Slay the sheep that pull wool over my eyes
 Creep in the dark I'm a shark in disguise
 Park it in drive
 Jump out the ride
 Crucify me on a spike
 I will die right by Lucifer's side
 Bodies in a pile about a mile down the road
 Got a while til it snows
 Black and white makes the color that I glow
 Grow in a hole until I become whole
 Shoot that bitch right in his neck like executing Clay Morrow
 Then I stumble and I walk to go and grab me a shovel
 Yung Jax Teller and the concrete's my jungle
 Smuggle a fuck boy to sacrifice into rubble
 Tunnel vision to murder with grey walls caving in Crumble till I'm unheard of the resurrection begins
 Welcome to the land of 6,000 degrees
 Feel the ferocity of fire burning for eternity
