

Everytime it Rains

Primal Fear

Close of insecurity, obscured me disarmed me
The mess of desperation trapped into my skin.

The crash history will break me
And take me from the stay are being.

Everytime it rains, just is calling,
I can't stop myself from falling,
Into the darkness,
Into the madness.
I'll be a world you wanna feel and pain
Everytime it rains.

The ways of vacillation press around me,
Around me.

The loneliness of silence it cause
In my brain.

The sorry said a mangler
And wonder why I fall your faith

Everytime it rains, just is calling,
I can't stop myself from falling,
Into the darkness,
Into the madness.
I'll be a world you wanna feel and pain

Everytime it rains.

Everytime it rains, just is calling,
I can't stop myself from falling,
Into the darkness,
Into the madness.
I'll be a world you wanna feel and pain
Everytime it rains.

Everytime it rains
Everytime it rains
Everytime it rains
