Belvedere

You want it all, you get to go
I've said it to myself most every day
Leave all behind, your star will shine
We'll celebrate your life while you're away
Nothing prepare us, not years of doubt
Sit and stare while I just looked away
One light in front of me, so far that I can't see
Sent us all this way to watch us burnAnimate this life into outer space
Just to see how far we'd go
Made a billion straight into the sun
Post oblivion we know
Is this karma I'd ask melting into this cask
Shooting streaks just like perihelion comets
Was it intentional? this way to hell
Making choices wrong at every turn
No time to make peace, fire in great seas
Sent us all this way to watch us burn
Survived the turmoil, regrets are few
I can't stand to see another way
One light in front of me, so bright that I can't see
Sitting here while we just slip away
Animate this life into outer space
Just to see how far we'd go
Made a billion straight into the sun
Post oblivion we know
Is this karma I'd ask melting into this cask
Shooting streaks just like perihelion comets
