

Lost in this City (demo)

Michael Kaneko

I'm getting lost in this city
These skyscrapers ain't what they used to be
Turn the clock back then maybe
I'll see a brighter light shining down on me
Been lost for some time
Growing restless trying to make out
The dreams in my mind
This silence is starting to kill
Slowly starting to ebb away my kind I don't know if I'll make it through
I don't know if I'll stay alive
All I know is that the sun will rise
Hope to god it won't leave me behind
Take it all till I'm bruised and red
You know I yearn for the bright light up ahead
Every time I fall I burn inside
Tryin' to fight this pain I cannot hide
Every time I'm stuck inside the rough
I'm worried that I won't make it above Oh I hear it coming
I'm straighten out cause I'm in love and
I'm finally starting to find my way
I'm tired of burning up in these flames
I feel it and I know
What I'm searching for
The things I'd do for you
Hear me say
Every time I fall I burn inside
Tryin' to fight this pain I cannot hide
Every time I'm stuck inside the rough
I'm worried that I won't make it up above
People like me we need to fly
Do every little thing to get us up high
I'm lost in this city feeling down
Worried if I'll make it safe and sound And when this story ends
Will we find peace under our skin
And when this story ends
Will we find peace under our skin
