I took the fall and on came all the changes
Work your way through the cold shell of my heart
Just to find another layer of stone waiting
I know I'm not a good man, I never was and I never will
Don't think you'll make it through the nightMy words, my words
My words are poison in your ears
What I say, what I say
What I say and what I do are never related
Like a tumbleweed I'll fly with the windI don't mean to fuck up all the things that I love
It's just my nature, now let's make a deal
I'll get my conscience back when you get a clue
For all your shadow needs, how dark they may beOf course, no one collected my soul
When I have been calling the wrong number
I don't want to analyze you, but I need to find flaws
So I don't need to be with you anymore
