

A New Hope

A War Within

Every day it seems to get harder
The walls closing in, you think that there is no escape
We're all searching for the answers in life
For a sign to point us the right way

But it just seems like it's always the same
I try, I try but things don't seem to change
I'm just a shadow I'm an outcast
I just need to escape from this place

Where's the light at the end of the tunnel?
I'm trapped here on my own
With all my strength I promise to break free
But nothing's changing and I know
There is always a chance
As long as I believe
I'm not giving up
So don't give up on me

At your wits end with nothing to lose
Searching for the light you haven't a clue
Nothing's changed, all is lost
I don't think I can take any more

You can't define me,
You can't define me
I will stand on my own
(on my own)
I've lived my whole life trying to find a way
But every single time you try to take it all from me
I'm sick and tired of you telling me what's wrong or right
So shut your mouth it's time for me to live my life

I can see the light
Shining through the darkness
Against all odds
I'm still here

(I can see the light)
With nothing left to lose

(Shining through the darkness)
I have everything to prove
(Against all odds)
I will not face away the same as those
(I'm still here)
That have given up on you

I can see the light
Shining through the darkness
Against all odds
I'm still here

Where's the light at the end of the tunnel?
I'm trapped here on my own
With all my strength I promise to break free
But nothing's changing and I know
There is always a chance
As long as I believe
I'm not giving up
So don't give up on me
