Who am I who are you why are we here what do we do want and greed love of power blinding pride the golden tower it's the pace of the race it's the time and the place it's the state of mind that some could never find my emotions wander in the comfort of the past while logic seeks to justify the images cast but who I am and all that I do appears different to everyone of you hopes and fears years and years it's the lesson you learn and not the bridges you burn did I love or fit with the rest did I live in peace did I do my best to respect the earth who gave it birth and never knowing why the surrealist's eye stand tall because you don't walk alone the life you lead is all your own take control and show me you care keep that attitude and just stay aware because who we are is all one in the same embodied entities in a pointless game
