Sorry to crash your party, but I just couldn't wait for an invitation
And I know damn well that you never sent one
But you can't kick me out 'cause I live here too
And I'm the life of the goddamn party that you threw Hangin' out with a bunch of brats
I know you like that know where it's at, but you don't
I understand why you guys are so mad
I wasn't picked to be part of your plan, but oh well Sorry to crash your party, but I just couldn't wait for an invitation
And I know damn well that you never sent one
But you can't kick me out 'cause I live here too
And I'm the life of the goddamn party that you threw Threw, threw, threw, threw, threw, threw, threw, threw Hangin' out with a bunch of brats
I know you like that you know where it's at, but you don't
I understand why you guys are so mad
I wasn't picked to be part of your plan, but oh well Hangin' out with a bunch of brats
I know you like that you know where it's at, but you don't
I understand why you guys are so mad
I wasn't picked to be part of your plan, but oh well Hangin' out with a bunch of brats
I know you like that you know where it's at, but you don't
I understand why you guys are so mad
I wasn't picked to be part of your plan, but oh well, oh well, oh well
