

Run Away

Cary Brothers

It's another day,
And I suffocate-
With no peace of mind-
And the forecast tells of a summer storm. So I call you-
Sound in circles-
Will you come tonight?
Yeah
You're gonna run away-
You're gonna run away. Listen up-
And I'll tell you why.
'Cause the feeling won't quit-
The memories sit-
They're nothin' now. So I call you-
Sound in circles-
Will you come tonight? You're gonna run away-
You're gonna run away. How long?
Dear, how long?
Rushing for long, long time-
Keeping it all alive.
How long?
(How long?)
Dear, how long?
(How long?)
Waiting for one last day-
But will you be gone away? So I call you-
Sound in circles-
Will you come tonight? You're gonna run away-
You're gonna run away.
You're gonna run away-
You're gonna run away.
