Everything (As It Moves)

Idlewild

The first time I saw the moon I cursed the sun
as I watched it shine I watched it burn a hole I watched it burn a holeEvery time I cursed the moon
I cursed the sun
as I watched it burn as i watched it turn away I don't have to turn awayEverything, as it moves as it moves I watch it turn right into gold it turns right into gold but you said everything, as it moves as it moves me it turns right into gold and yes it turns right into goldAnd I curse the sun as the moon now darkens the sky your heart is beating in your palm is beating in the palms of your hand And if my brothers and my sisters are in the air where the moonlight twists I'll board this ship but only a ship that sails and no destinationEverything, as it moves as it moves I watch it turn right into gold
and you said everything, as it moves
and yes it turns right into goldAnd the sand that turns to rust which turns to rain, you know hero cries your name, you know hero cries your nameAnd the sand that turns to rust
hero cries your nameEverything, as it moves
as it moves I watch it turn right into gold
it turns right into gold
